

Assisi Suono Sacro | Summer School 2017

The courses are intended for members of the Assisi Suono Sacro Association. Enrolment in the association is free of charge for those under thirty.

The cost per single course per student is € 375,00, including secretarial fees; except M° Garcia's course in composition which costs € 1.000,00; and except M° Lu Ye course in canto which costs € 850,00.

Seminars cost € 150,00 per student per course; for students enrolled in one or more courses the cost is € 100,00.

Each course provides 6/7 hours tuition per day including collective and individual lessons at the discretion of the teacher. Lessons begin at 9 am and end at 5 pm. From 5 pm on students may take part in musical ensembles or engage in further study with the course piano accompanist or teacher. The courses will be held at the Sant'Antonio School in via Sant'Antonio, Assisi and in other classrooms in the town centre.

Each teacher will be assisted by a piano accompanist for a total of 7/8 hours. Extra hours need to be requested and paid for separately by the students at the special rate of € 30,00 and be agreed on depending on the availability of the accompanists.

The course being presented by Orlando Jacinto Garcia will include group meetings where the concept of sacred music/spirituality in the 21st century will be discussed including a review of works by Part, Messiaen, Gubaidulina, among others. In addition, students will meet individually in private composition class sessions with maestro Garcia as they create a new work to be rehearsed and performed and recorded in concert by the Suono Sacro Chamber Ensemble (4et) during the festival. In order to be accepted to the course please send up to 3 representative scores (PDFs) and recordings (mp3s), links. In addition, please send a CV with previous studies, performances, etc. to orlando@orlandojacintogarcia.com.

All other students attending courses in composition may avail of the Youth Ensemble and the students of the various instrumental courses.

Each regularly enrolled student, having obtained the approval of the course teacher, may listen in on all the other courses on the programme.

Persons not attending any course may also listen in on courses for a fee of € 100,00.

At the end of the courses, all the attendees will receive a certificate attesting to their attendance.

Each student shall bring his/her own music stand.

All those enrolled in courses for instrumentalists or composers may attend the Intuitive Music Course held by Markus Stockhausen for an extra fee of €. 100,00.

All enrolments must be finalized no later than the 31st May 2017.

Fees are payable in two instalments: a down payment of about 20% upon booking, the remainder due no later than the 21st. May 2017. The first instalment gives students the right to reserve a place at the seminar/s and/or master class/es of their choice. This advance payment is not reimbursable unless a student is excluded due to overbooking or the chosen course cancelled by the Association.

Should a course fail to be set up due to a dearth of enrolments or be annulled due to circumstances beyond the Association's or a teacher's control, the entire fee shall be reimbursed.

Non-resident students may be hosted at Hotels with which the academy has an agreement (Hotel San Rufino and affiliates) situated close to the course venues at an all-inclusive flat rate of €50 per day per person (accommodation, breakfast, lunch and dinner) €. 50,00.
